Five Piute Indians policemen are employed by Uncle Sam, at a salary of $30 a month, on the Walker Lake Reservation. The jail is a log cabin about twelve feet long, eight feet wide and ten feet high. In the center of this building is a wooden cell large enough to hold two persons. The jail seldom has an occupant and the crime is generally either drunkenness or fighting. The Chief of Police acts as judge and appoints two other policemen as attorneys one for the Court and one for the prisoners. If found guilty the culprit is sentenced to jail from one to twenty four hours according to the crime.

Card From Dr. Guion.

ED. APPEAL.—In your issue of April 21st, you published an alleged "interview with an eminent Dr. of this City." As you did not say "Dr." instead of Dr. and as you again referred to him as an M. D. it would appear that you were vouching for his professional standing.

It is for this reason alone, that I am prompted to say a few words in reply for the allegations concerning the physicians and druggists of San Francisco are so utterly puerile and destitute of common sense, as to be unworthy of notice.

If all the "Drs." in San Francisco, Carson and all other places, were shut up for a month or such a period, as would deter them from further attempts to humbug, defraud and rob the unsuspecting people to be found in all communities, the mortality in all places so preyed upon, would undoubtedly be very much lessened.

There is no argument in the gambling proposition of offering to bet, but it is an evidence of one's sincerity in making a statement to back it with such a proposition. I will wager $250.00 that the alleged Dr. is not a physician, i. e. that he is not a graduate of any reputable medical school, to say nothing of "several," that he can't speak one language correctly much less "ten," that he never was a medical officer, even in the lowest capacity, to say nothing of "Surgeon in Chief to five Artillery Regiments & Companies; that he never removed a cancer in his life and finally that he cannot write correctly a prescription containing three of the simplest drugs in the materia medica, the three to be taken in any class that are usually compounded together.

I will wager the $250 on any of the foregoing propositions. Should this communication call forth any "takers" I will immediately put up the money.

Respectfully,
 J. GUION, M. D.

Another Tax-payer Talks.

ED. APPEAL—I noticed in your paper of yesterday a letter from a tax-payer who favored the old Board because it had done so well. This may be all right, but people in this county sometimes like a little rotation in office and it looks to me as if it was about time for a change.

The charges that few candidates are rushing voters on the register seems a little far fetched. How does he know that the old Board are not pushing their crowd in? It looks to me like a tax-payer jumped at conclusions.

Now I would like to ask Messrs. Hofer and Woolley who will get the contract if they remain in power. I mean the $25,000 sewer contract. If it is going to Dick Ryland, of Reno, it is high time the tax-payers knew it.

If the Indian School gives us any idea of how the sewers are to be built, we don't want them built by Reno contractors and Reno labor.

We want Carson labor and contractors and to use Ormsby County money. Yours.

Shenandoah.

The drama is an object lesson for both young and old, and no one is too old to learn that life has a purpose above the ordinary aims and practices of men. In the play we have shown to us vivid living pictures, how right can triumph over wrong; how to escape from the shadows and find peace and pleasure in the reflected sunshine of contentment and forbearance. In short, it illustrates and makes attractive the brighter and better of life by drawing a sharp contrast between good and evil. We read of these things and forget them, but the strong living pictures of the drama are photographed upon our memories for all time. These impressions naturally have their effect and our actions are unconsciously governed by them through the strength of their example. It is true there are vicious plays which have the reverse of a good effect upon the mind, but those are few and short lived. Perhaps the best of these plays now being presented in this country is Bronson Howard's war drama, "Shenandoah." It beams with patriotism, has a vigorous healthy motive, and mingles the most fascinating humor with the noblest pathos. To witness its stirring action and to hear its lofty and heroic sentiment thrills one's heart with the spirit of emulation, while the inherent nobility of the characters, worked out in their own peculiar way, cannot fail to raise the human race in one's estimation and make one feel all the better for it. If any one is inclined to doubt the crystallized truth of this little sermon, let them go for themselves and be convinced.

The opportunity is easy available, for "Shenandoah" is to be played at Carson Opera House one night Friday April 24, by one of the strongest companies in the United States, that have appeared in this great play three hundred and fifty times in New York and one hundred and fifty times in Chicago.

Secure your seats at once at Hawkin's Cigar store for this the greatest attraction even in Carson.
